A QUIET AFFAIR.

Miss Lula Allen, a Popular Teacher, Married to Mr. L. O. Taylor, Last Wednesday Afternoon.

MOTHER.

Quite a number of friends assembled at the residence of Mr. L. L. Eubank, lasl Wednesday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock to witness the ceremony of marriage, the vows being taken by Mr. L. O. Taylor, one of Adair county's best young men, a gentleman of high character and standing before his fellow men, and Miss Lula Allen, a Due from approved reserve popular and cultured teacher, whose home has been Columbia since child-

The ceremony was pronounced beautifully and solemnly by the pastor of the contracting parties, Eld. Z. T. Williams, of the Christian church, and immediately thereafter the couple left in company with Mr. Ray Conoyer and Miss Ada Feese, Mr. O. A. Taylor and Miss Jessie Taylor, brother and sister of the groom, for the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Ada Taylor, near Montpelier, where the wedding supper was served.

In testimony of the popularity of this Due to other National Banks very excellent couple, many presents Due to State and Private Banks were received.

The News extends its greetings, Individual deposits subject to trusting that happiness may attend them from the altar and all during the Postal Savings Deposits days and years of their lives.

For the present the couple will board at the Hancock Hotel, and later will begin housekeeping in Columbia.

Adjudged Insame.

We regret to chronicle the inteilligence of the unfortunate condition of Rev. T. F. Walton, who was adjudged insane last week at Burgin, Mercer county, and sent to the asylum. Rev. Walton was pastor of the Presbyterian Church here about twelve years ago. It is our undertanding that he has been in very poor health for some time, and his physical condition, it is believed. brought on insanity. His last charge before going to Burgin, was Bradfordsville. The people here feel the deepest sympathy for the unfortunate minister, who has many friends in Columbia.

J. T. Jones, Montpelier, Ky.

This paper desires to extend its profoundest sympathy to Mr. S. C. and Mrs. S. C. Pemberton, of Horse Cave, who were recently bereft of their bedied a few days ago at Bowling Green. "Tom," as he was familiarly called, was a born gentleman, a friend to every body and everybody was his friend. He was known to a gaeat many Columbians -his father, also, having a number of friends in Adair county. ### The Farmer.

The farmer was once caricatured as the embodiment of ignorance and credulity. He was pictured as the prey of gold brick endors. He was thought to be totally without savior faire in personal conduct and far behind in a breast-of-the-times information.

But the day when such an idea of the former had such application has gone and evidences that it is gone are to be found everywhere.

Here is a very recent one:

"Questions asked the prospective jurors thus far have disclosed the fact," says a newspaper dispatch of the trial of the packers of Chicago, "that farmers are closer' readers of the news ment regulation of business and in. in many cases are better versed city neighbors."

always a gross exaggeration. Now it is too far away from the truth to arouse even a smile.

The farmer knows fewer things than does the city man, but what he knows he knows thoroughly and not superficially. Superficial knowledge is characteristic of dwellers of the city, particularly of the large cities.

The newspaper is the one best means of conveying information, not only of current events but of the course of developments whether the developments be commercial, civic or political.

The farmer, cut off from the many distractions of city life, not only reads his newspapers, but he studies it. He thinks on his own account.

And thus his grasp of public questions equals where it does not exceed that of the average city man.

Up to the Various States.

The two houses composing the greatest deliberative body in the world," United States Congress, have concurred in their views as to the Bristow Constitutional amendment, which puts ing the nation: the legislatures amendment, when it will become a part of the constitution. Following is the proposed amendment:-

"The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each state, elected by the people thereof for aix years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies. Provided, that the Legislature of any State may empower the exexutive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the Legislature may direct.

This amendment shall not be so construed as to effect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution."

Discovers Cause of High Prices.

Among the witnesses who appeared before the New York food investigating commission was H. B Fullerton, a truck farmer at Riverhead, L. I. He said he decided to follow his products from the soil to the door of the consumer and find out if possible how it happened that he received a low price for what cost the public a lot of money. He found five middlemen between himself and the consumer. "Two of them with no office but their hats and lead pencils," as he puts it, and he decided to try an experiment. He packed several hampers full of attractive varieties of vegetables and sent by express to a selected list of consumers. With the hampers he sent a card saying: "These vegetables are fresh from the garden and have not been handled by five sets of middlemen They are quoted in the market to-day at $3. If you keep them please remit $1.25. In every case the hampers were retained and the money sent, the consumer thus getting the better products at less than half the retail price. The express charge was 25 cents. After deducting that, Mr. Fullerton netted $1, which was more than he formerly got from commission men. All right for producer and consumer, but what becomes of the five middlmen? They may have

A Permanent Cure For Chronic Constipation

Although those may dispute it who have not tried it, yet thousands of others, who speak from personal experience, assert that there is a permanent cure for chronic constipation. Some testify they were cured for as little as of all kinds can be dispensed with and fifty cents, years ago, and that the nature is again solely relied on. trouble never came back on them, while others admit they took several bottles facts are J. F. Blankenship, Sharon, Tenn., before a steady cure was brought about. and Beulah L. Rogers, Kosmosdale, Ky., The remedy referred to is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been on the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularized on its merits, by one person telling another. The fact that its strongest supporters are women and elderly people—the ones most persistently constipated—makes it certain that the claims regarding it as a permanent cure for constipation have not been exaggerated.

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

You carry Fire Insurance—and why? Because of the danger of sudden loss.

Because it protects you against this uncertainty, although your buildings may never burn down.

Do you protect them against decay - against the weather - against the dead certainty of depreciation resulting from allowing them to go unpainted. Why not?

Paint Insurance is worth even more to you than Fire Insurance—yet is often sadly neglected—and you are the loser.

"The Flour with the Nutty Flavor"

It is made on a "Midget" Marvel Self-Contained Flour Mill—the last word in milling machines. All of the milling operations take place in this one machine. It is a sanitary mill, none of the product is touched by hand or comes in contact with the outside air. In this mill the wheat and flour travel less than twenty feetinstead of the hundreds of feet in the ordinay modern mill-with the result that this unusually short and quick system keeps the flour clear and free from impurities, preserving its natural creamy bloom and the volatile oils which contain the flavor and aroma of the crushed wheat are not evaporated. This flour has that sweet, rich, nutty flavor of the "Old Fashioned" stone ground flour. You will also notice this flour has more strength than other patent flour, it will rise quicker in the dough.

We most cordially invite you down to our plant to see this wonderful mill make "The Flour with the Nutty Flavor."
